18)

19 Sentencing for defendant is currently set for October 24, 2017, at 2:30 p.m. The parties have 20 previously stipulated to continue this sentencing several times. As explained in prior stipulations, 21 defendant entered into a cooperation agreement with the government and his cooperation is continuing
22 as part of the government's ongoing investigation into securities fraud and obstruction of the Securities
23 and Exchange Commission by defendant and other individuals, including Gregg Jaclin.

24 On May 18, 2017, Gregg Jaclin was indicted for conspiracy, securities fraud, false SEC filings, 25 concealment of material facts from a government agency, false statements, and obstruction, all as part of 26 an overarching scheme and conspiracy in which Jaclin and Husain participated together. United States
27 v. Gregg Jaclin, CR 17-281 RS, Dkt. 1. On August 31, 2017, this Court related United States v. Jaclin
28 to United States v. Husain. CR 17-281 RS, Dkt. 22. A status conference is scheduled before this Court for Jaclin on November 7, 2017.

Husain's cooperation is part of the case against Jaclin. Under the terms of his cooperation plea agreement, Husain is required to continue to aid the government in the prosecution of Jaclin and testify at trial, and the government expects that he will do so should Jaclin's case go to trial. Therefore, the parties jointly request that Husain's sentencing date be vacated at this time, and a status conference be set for April 24, 2018. Should Jaclin's case conclude or be resolved in advance of that date, the parties will meet and confer to request a date for sentencing.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
